Albury Area Guide

Located on a fertile bend of the mighty Murray River, Albury is home to some spectacular colonial architecture (such as the beautiful Victorian-era railway station building), the amazing man-made Lake Hume, superb regional shopping and an array of parks and gardens.

As a thriving artistic community, Albury plays host to fine art galleries (including the Albury Regional Art Centre, home to many of Russell Drysdale's works), concert venues, theatres and museums. Also to be enjoyed is sophisticated dining in Dean Street, café-style eateries throughout the city and a rich variety of award winning wineries.

320 kilometres from Melbourne and 350 kilometres from Sydney, Albury is one half of the twin border city, Albury-Wodonga.
